AIR NAVIGATION CHART

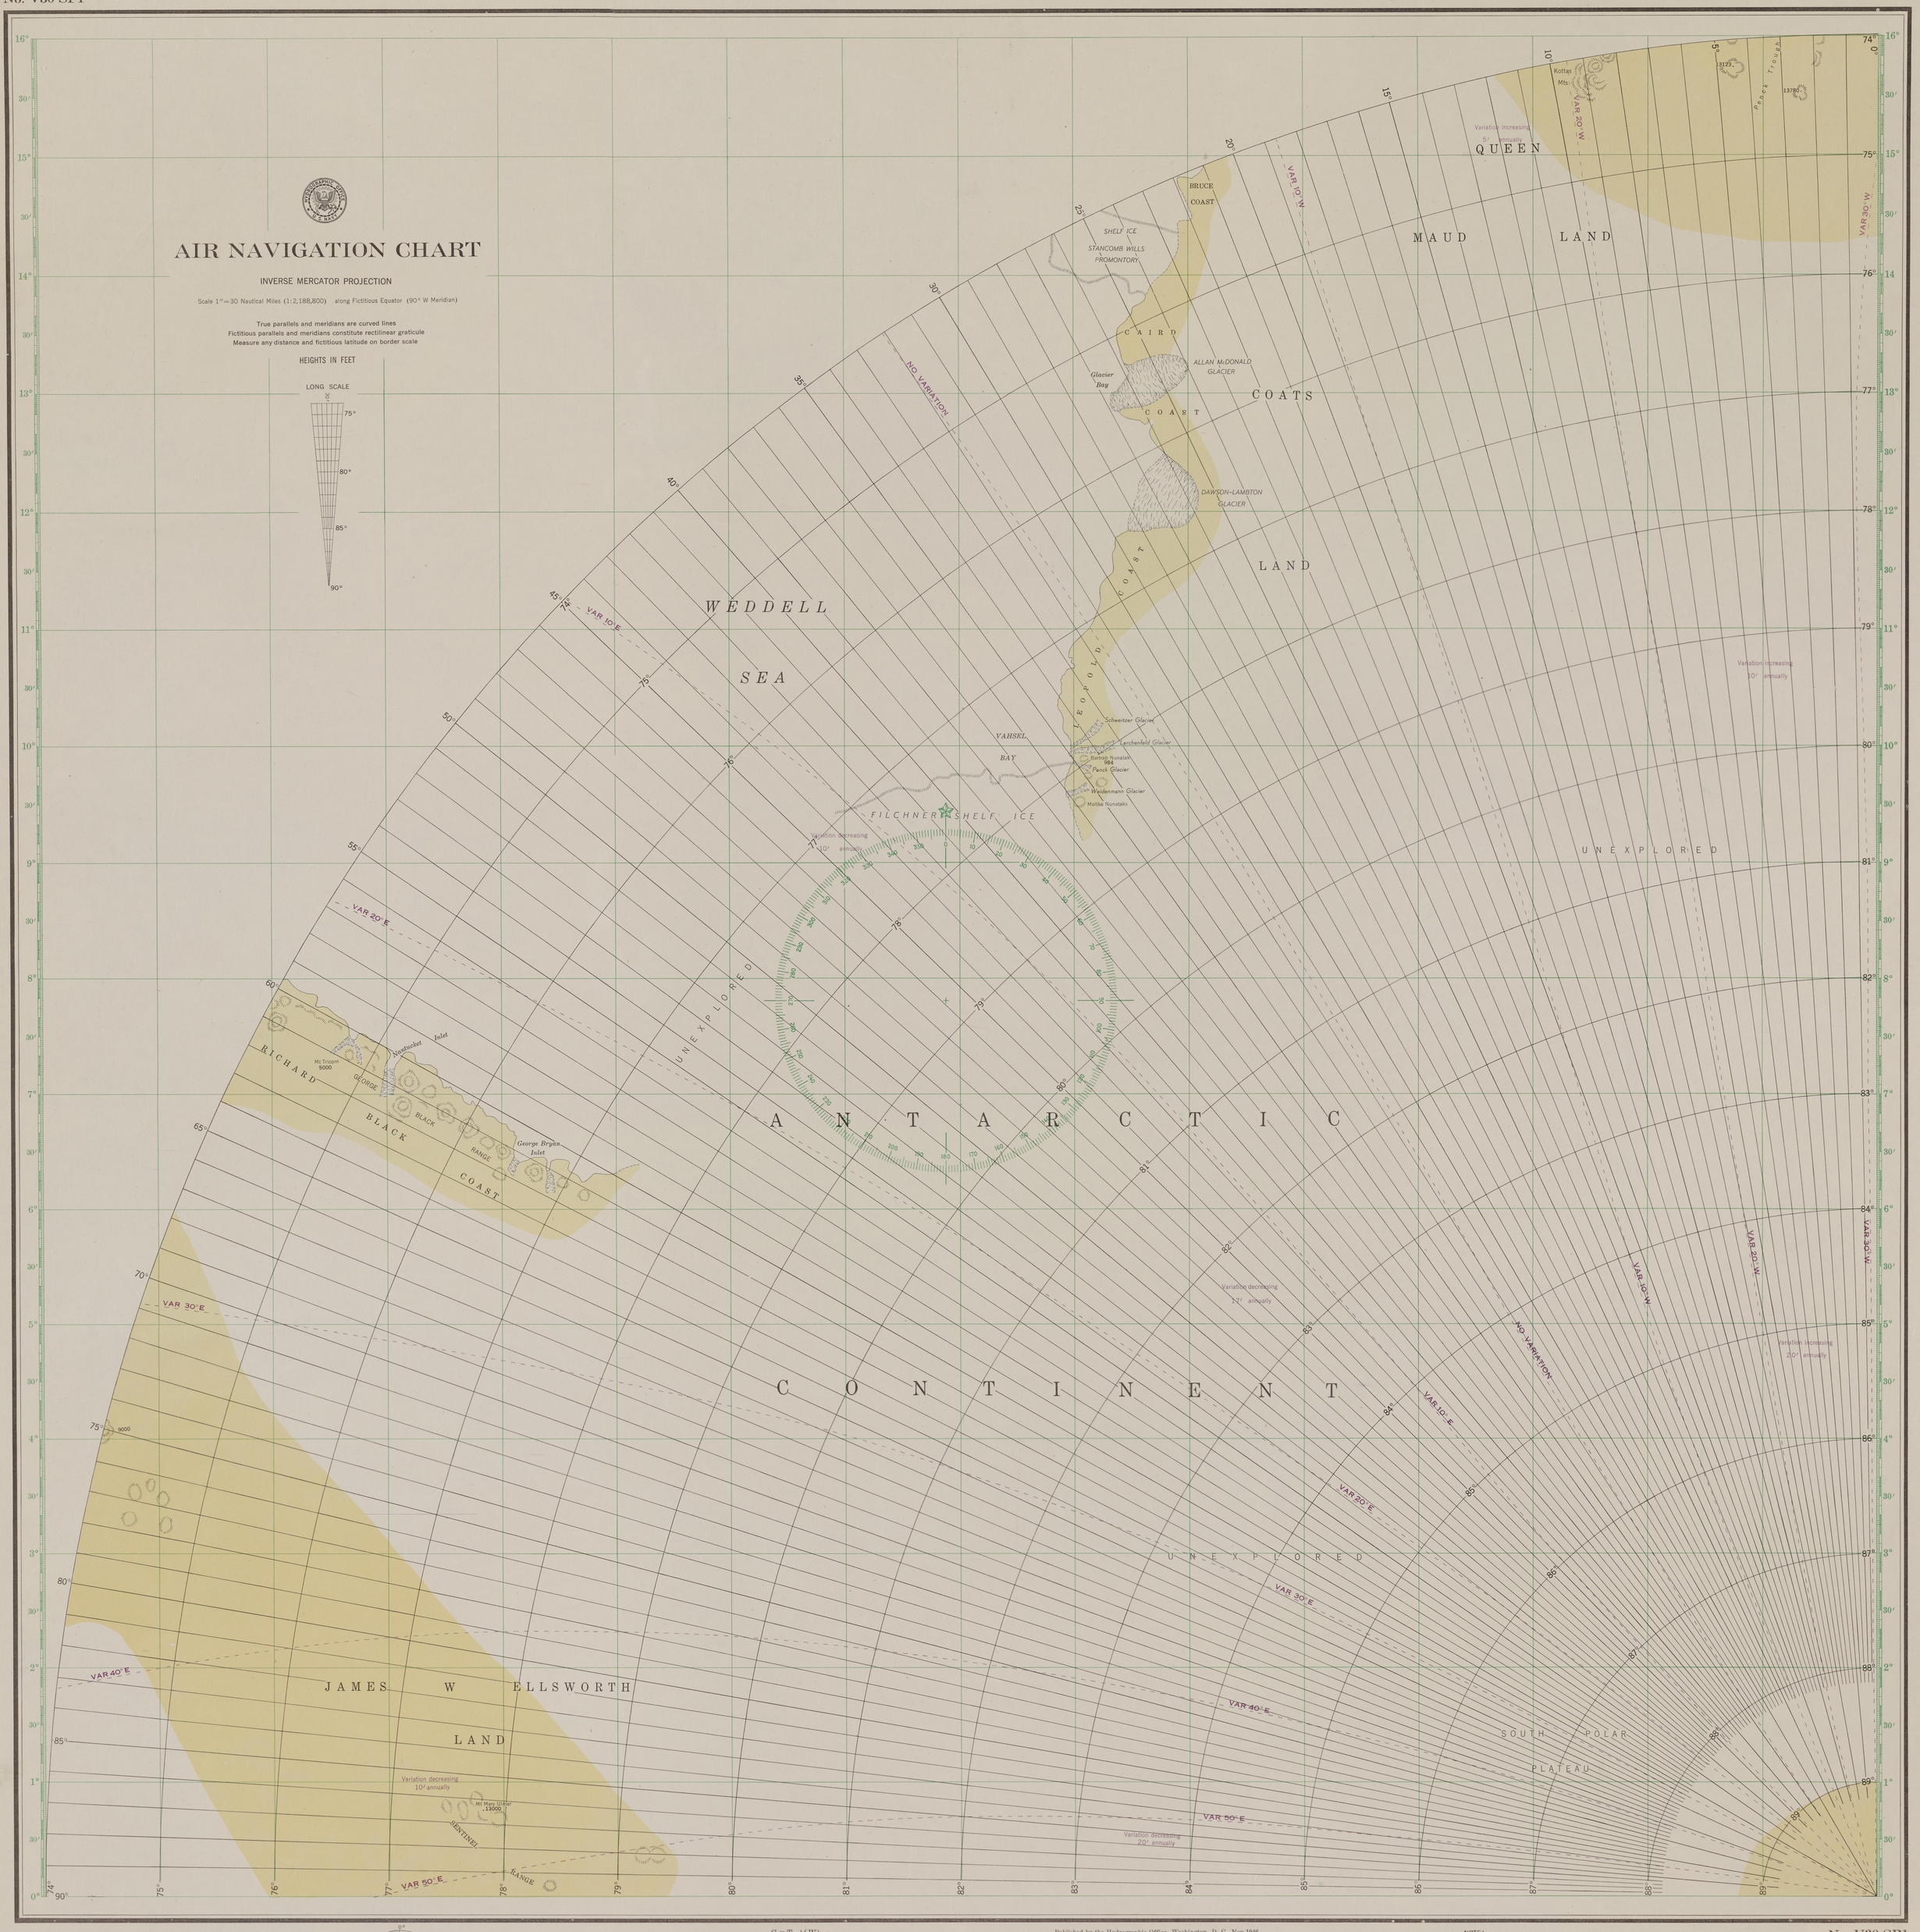
INVERSE MERCATOR PROJECTION

Scale 1″=30 Nautical Miles (1:2,188,800) along Fictitious Equator (90° W Meridian)

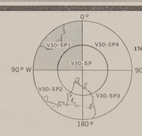
True parallels and meridians are curved lines
Fictitious parallels and meridians constitute rectilinear graticule
Measure any distance and fictitious latitude on border scale

HEIGHTS IN FEET

LONG SCALE



MAGNETIC VARIATION CURVES ARE FOR 1945



INDEX TO SHEETS

$$G = T - \lambda(W)$$
$$T = G + \lambda(W)$$

Published by the Hydrographic Office, Washington, D. C. Nov 1946
under the authority of the SECRETARY OF THE NAVY

NOTE:
The topography shown on this chart is from exploratory surveys and should be used with CAUTION.

Tinted areas indicate limit of exploration.

No. V30-SP1
PROVISIONAL CHART